We have had a bumper crop this year! They're still too new for a big event. So...

We have no bands planned, the pastures aren't mown, and the poop hasn't been scooped. The normal dates for Fall would be September 12 and 13. If you want to come talk to David and Lamilla in the big green barn, come on. If you want music, you'll need to bring your own instrument this time. You'll have to bring your own food, too, if you want to eat. Oh, and there are no porto potties either (and, no, you can't use our bathroom). We do have dry trees. We'll be glad to have you. We won't turn anybody away (except from our bathroom). Come on and we'll listen to ya'll play music (unamplified; since there'll be no sound system either). We're giving our children a break to tend to their new babies. They may make a cameo appearance, but their first priority is there family. We didn't do any publicity this time, but didn't want to put a halt to it either. So, we'll see what happens. If people come, we'll enjoy talking about family and music or what ever God needs us to discuss. We enjoy the people that come, the fellowship, and the God honoring music. God can certainly make good things happen in a strange situation.

We hope to get back on schedule in the spring as usual.
